

The Sunday in Ordinary Time

January 22, 2012

The Ninevites heard the preaching of Jonah and repented of their evil ways (1), thus experiencing the Lord's compassion (Ps). Do we repent when we hear the preaching of Jesus (3)? Do we invest our lives in the world rather than in God's kingdom (2)?

What challenges we are offered in the stories presented to us today! Are we up to meeting them? Can we even take the first step and walk a new path as Jonah and those first apostles did? "Yogi" Berra, former American Major League Baseball catcher, outfielder, and manager, was well known for his pithy sayings. He once quipped, "When you come to a fork in the road, take it." We must move forward in response to God's call...now! We must take the fork in the "less traveled road."

That's where Jesus walks!

ATTENTION PLEASE!

If you or a member of your family have been admitted to the hospital or an illness that keeps them home and they would like Father to visit or have a parishioner bring Communion. If you want to have your name added to our prayer list, please call the office at 642-2002 and let us know!

The call of Jesus, “Repent, and believe in the Gospel,” is relevant in our lives today, both personally and communally. While we may consider ourselves to be good Christians, there is always more that we can do to deepen our spiritual life. Even little things such as listening to religious music or reading a single Bible verse each day can help. Communally, our shortcomings are well known. Poverty still exists in our land. Abortion is still accepted by some. Immigrants are often unwelcome. And the sick sometimes lack someone to care for them. We are called to repentance here as well.

Please pick-up your collection envelope box so we can save the expense of mailing. Any boxes not picked up this Sunday will be mailed.

Please remember to follow along in the order of worship more closely than usual, by using the mass cards in the pews.

“Thank you, and may God bless you!”

Crab Fest Dinner.

Will be on Jan. 28th starting at 5:00 pm. Tickets will be on sale for $12.00 after Masses and at the door.
